The Monthly Meeting of the County W. C. T. U. Was a Love Feast.

ONE HITCH IN THE PROCEEDINGS.

The Land to Be Flooded With Campaign Tracts and Speakers.

ONE DISPUTE ABOUT COLLECTIONS.

The monthly meeting of the Allegheny County W. C. T. U. was held in the lecture room of the Third U. P. Church, Diamond street, yesterday afternoon. The proceedings were as calm and as placid as a river which, on a summer's day, idly reflects the rays of the sun; a perfect love feast and mutual admiration society. Friends be-came more friendly, and old enemies of the White Rose and other factions became reconciled for the time being.

The union 1s in an excellent financial shape. The most important business was the preparatory arrangements made for the distribution of Constitutional amendment campaign literature. If these plans are carried out the city and county will be deluged with tracts, "signal lights," "Devil's Toboggan Slides" and other edifying and hair-raising literary gems. It seems rather startling to hear one of those good old Christian ladies arise and, in all her sincerity, announce that they have on hands 20,000 "Devil's Slides," and are ready to distribute them free.

GETTING THE SLIDES IN MOTION. It was decided at the meeting that to every person who applied for literature it should be given free, provided there was a guarantee for its distribution. Funds are to be taken from the treasury to pay for the cost of printing the literature. The parlor of the Day Nursery on North avenue, was designated as the depot of supplies for Allegheny, and the Prohibition headquarters on Smithfield street as the Pittsburg depot. Mrs. Campbell, President of the union, is about to leave for California. She tendered her resignation, saying that it required an active leader to be on the spot during the campaign. The union refused to accept it, and granted her a leave of absence until May 1. Miss Harrison will act as Presiient during her absence.

It was decided to secure the services of Mrs. Frances L. Harper, a colored lady from Philadelphia to lecture for two weeks among the colored people of Allegheny There was some opposition to the lady being employed, as it was said she was not popular among the colored people. Mrs. Broadax Smith said she loved Mrs. Harper, but she did not think she was capable of doing the work. She had a soft melodious voice, and would be an excellent speaker in a calm: but, when the storm came, they need some one who could both talk and shout! Some one who could "tell the colored people the devil was behind them and they had better get out of the woods." Force was necessary. Mrs. Smith emphasized her remarks by some rather iolent, but altogether harmless gestures.

THE ONLY SIGN OF A SQUALL. The distribution of money collected by various committees created a little talk. The Allegheny committee thought it be-longed to them, and was to be used at their discretion. Mrs. Campbell stated that the money belonged to the county, inasmuch as the committee was appointed by the county. A member of the committee insisted that the money ought to belong to the committee for work in Allegheny, and said they would claim it. Mrs. Campbell poured oil on the troubled waters, and the committee grace-

Mrs. Mair resigned, and said she would It was decided to pay Mrs. Broadax

Smith $5 a week and expenses for her work among the colored people. It was decided, also, to engage an at-torney to represent the union at the License Court, which commences on the third Monday in March. Noonday prayer meetings will be held during the sitting of the Court, as heretofore. Remonstrances are being circulated, and the union expects to make a vigorous fight against the granting of After deciding to hold the quarterly meet-ing in March, at Wilkinsburg, the meeting

FOR SINS OF COMMISSION.

Rev. Mr. McKee Sued for Libel as a Result of a Presbytery Finding.

A suit for libel has been instituted through Messrs. Marshall and Imbrie, counsel for Mrs. A. B. C. McFarland, wife of the Rev. A B. C. McFarland, formerly pastor of the Fairview U. P. Church, against the Rev. J. S. McKee, pastor of the Butler U. P.

It seems that last summer the Rev Mo-Farland separated from his wife, and the Rev. McKee was made chairman of a commission appointed by the Butler Presbytery to investigate the case. The commission reported that Mrs. McFarland was to blame, and yesterday the summons was served on the Kev. McKee while he was down from Butler attending the U. P. Presbytery.

BELIEF IN THE BIBLE

Is Shown by Rev. Dr. Vincent to Have the Very Best Foundation in All the World With Its Historic Proofs. Of all the subjects discussed, ot all the propositions advanced thereon, at the pending Sabbath School Institute, in the First U. P. Church, probably none were of more general interest or import than those which yesterday came from Rev. B. T. Vincent, D. D., on "Why We Believe the Bible:" In bringing forth our proofs as bases of this belief, we group the general classes of evidence, that it is an authority—its genuineness, its authenticity and its inspiration. To prove its genuineness, the manuscripts are the first proofs. There are hundreds of manuscripts, more than necessary; 1.200 or 1,300 of the Old Testament, and 100 or more of the New, that have been hundred down from generation to have been handed down from generation to generation without one central truth or factor necessary to the faith being destroyed.

In copying the ancient manuscripts, we are told, the copyists were compelled to dress in new garments and wash themselves continually, that they might not pollute the sacred word. While at work they were watched and guarded and were forbidden to speak, even to the King. So correctly has the work been performed that it has been said an Euglish jurist gathered together enough quotations from different ancient sources to have reconstructed the New

Under genuineness, we have had councils from time to time in every country searching for flaws and proofs, and in all these they have not found a thing that changes the inspired meaning or imperils a single truth central in all manuscripts. As another proof, we have the different sects, all watching the Word and it is known that, should any sect attempt to change one jot or tittle of this Holy Word, there would be trouble. Here is the secret use for

The Bible has been so woven and interwoven

The Bible has been so woven and interwoven in the history and in the hearts of the people that even the uneducated and illiterate cannot but have a feeling that it is true.

What a queer thing it would be if the Bible were an old book of falsehoods, that it could reform a penitent sinner and make him a living benediction to the people!

To finish, this grand old volume, with its 36 to 40 books, has traveled through all the tongues, dialects and countries, down to the present time, and not one mortal with his best claims has shaken its truths. One hundred years ago an eminent French geologist found 50 or 60 truths of nature from searching it, nature and it being but in harmony, teaching the truths of t being but in harmony, teaching the truths of

As a challenge, we ask men to prove the life of Alexander the Great, or any man of history, by such a formula. Second, it the Bible did not come as we have proved, whence came it? In the evening Dr. Vincent conducted a very interesting class drill, Rev. W. J. Reid, D. D., addressed the Institute on "The Art of Questioning," and Dr. Vincent talked on "Teaching."

THE JUDGE SURPRISED.

A Veteran Allegheny Official Presented

With a Gold Hended Cane. Captain William Hazlett, the veteran and popular clerk in the Allegheny Water Department, celebrated his sixty-eighth birthday yesterday. "Tony" or "Judge," as he is familiarly called, is an old landmark and remembers things that occurred 70 years ago, his friends say. Last evening he was invited to go to the Keystone Hotel, at the corner of South and East Diamond streets, where he met about 40 of his friends, the party being comprised of Allegheny City officials and members of the different departments.

The "Judge" was surprised when he was informed that it was his birthday and was banded a gold-headed cane, a present from his friends. The two little Misses Gerst, daughters of the proprietor, then presented him with a silk muffler and a necktie. Mr Hazlett recovered from his surprise sufficiently to thank the donors, making a very

"FASCINATION," EVERY NIGHT THIS WEEK, WITH MATINEES WEDNESDAY AND SATURDAY. OPINIONS OF THE PRESS:

THE DISPATCH. "Miss Cora Tanner played the heroine, Lady Madge Slashton, and as a man, Charles Marlowe. In giving full sweetness to her womanly side of the character and a pert, boyish impetuosity to the masquerade in man's garments Miss Tanner was successful. The scenes in the play are set with a magnificence that is seldom seen outside of New York. Taken as a whole, 'Fascination' is worth seeing twice, or even thrice."

THE POST. "When one leaves a theater after a performance with the satisfaction of knowing that he has enjoyed the acting of a first-class company, he is usually content. This applies to the entertainment at the Opera House, where 'Fascination' was presented by Cora Tanner last night. It is a strong, capable, well-trained and intelligent organization, and we have no hesitation in saying that its dramatic work as a whole and its scenic effects have been equaled by few and surpassed by none in Pittsburg this season."

THE TIMES. "'Fascination' sustains its title. Cora Tan-ner as Lady Madge Stashton and Charles Mar-lowe made a decided hit. She has a good com-pany and fine scenery."

COMMERCIAL GAZETTE. "Miss Cora Tanner was greeted by a large and appreciative audience at the Opera House. Her play 'Fascination' is a new and bright English comedy drama. Miss Tanner, who has good looks, good figure and good manners, is very pleasing in the leading role. The company, which is quite large, is composed of people above the average quality. The scenery is excellent, and the staging throughout is very fine." CHRONICLE TELGRAPH.

"It gives one an unparalleled satisfaction to be able to record the production of a new play in a manner utterly surprising in the fact that the minutest detail has been given thought and care. Just such a play is 'Fascination.' Miss Cora Tanner as Lady Madge Slashton and her other self, the gay young Charles Marlowe, is captivating and sweet." "The play of 'Fascination,' with Cora Tanner as the star, is the best seen here for years. The scenery and settings have rarely, if ever, been excelled. Miss Tanner dresses bandsomely and acts superbix.
